I. Feedback Process

Nagindas Khandwala College follows a systematic feedback collection and analysis of curriculum from the stakeholders – students, teachers, alumni and employers. The process of feedback collection is as follows:

Student:

The IQAC of Nagindas Khandwala College collects programme-wise feedback of students twice in an academic year to ensure and quality education delivered to the learners. The feedback is analysed annually and student-views are taken into consideration in the curriculum design and delivery. The questions in the feedback form are based on the following significant aspects about the curriculum:

Q1: Holistic development of students is ensured by participation of students in various sports, cultural and co-curricular activities organized throughout the year

Q2: The academic flexibility embedded in the curriculum provides opportunities to students to pursue their interest by choosing from a vast number of electives

Q3: The curriculum has been designed to make students industry ready.

Q4: The curriculum is outcome based and the expected outcomes, through various courses, are attained.

Q5: Courses in the curriculum promote Entrepreneurship and students are encouraged and supported to initiate start-ups by incubation centre.

Q6: Curriculum helps in enhancing intellectual aptitude of the student

Nagindas Khandwala College (Autonomous)

Teacher:

To impart quality in the academic delivery, Nagindas Khandwala College collects feedback from teachers from its Departments/programmes annually. The teachers' views are incorporated in the curriculum design and delivery. The questionnaire includes the following aspects about the curriculum:

- Q1: Current syllabus is based on the needs of the industry
- Q2: Curriculum includes current content
- Q3: Curriculum provides academic flexibility
- Q4: Course outcome is well defined
- Q5: Lectures allotted per module are clearly defined and included in syllabus
- Q6: Syllabus is reviewed at regular intervals to include latest developments

Alumni:

Alumni of Nagindas Khandwala College are working at various sectors such as industry, business, academics and higher studies. College takes the views and suggestions from alumni of various programmes yearly about the current curriculum, in the offline mode as they visit college and in the online mode through the feedback form on the website. Alumni feedback helps the college to link their experience for providing better academic experience to the current learners. The questionnaire for alumni addresses the following aspects of the curriculum:

- Q1: Are you satisfied with the programme you studied in the college in relation to your current job / occupation?
- Q2: Are you satisfied with Contents and quality of courses offered?
- Q3: The degree to which the study programme contents fulfilled your expectations

M. Satta.

Nagindas Khandwala College (Autonomous)

Q4: Overall satisfaction with the study programme implementation

Q5: To what extent has the study programme prepared you for work in the field?

Q6: To what extent has the study programme prepared you for continuing education in the same field?

Employer:

Nagindas Khandwala College curriculum is reviewed by the recruiters and other industry personnel. College gets the syllabus reviewed by the employers/ industry to ensure that the curriculum caters to the industry needs and hence to provide better employability and entrepreneurship to the learners. The feedback is taken from the employers as they visit college for guest lectures, placement interviews, mock interviews, project/practical evaluation or the board of studies meeting. The curriculum is reviewed based on the following questionnaire:

Q1: Curriculum is relevant for employability

Q2: Curriculum is effective in developing innovative thinking amongst student employees

Q3: Student employee from Khandwala College (Autonomous) knows the latest developments in the field as courses taught are up-to-date

Q4: Effectiveness of curriculum for development of leadership

Q5: Current syllabus is need based

Q6: Student employees from Khandwala College (Autonomous) are sensitized towards cross cutting issues like gender equality, environment and sustainability, ethics and values etc., through relevant courses in the curriculum.

The feedback from these four stakeholders are collected on a 5-point scale and the detailed analysis of programme-wise feedback is given below.

	planning or execution part of it these things really do a lot of difference and help you build your own personality and aura along with the confidence so encouraging students to be a bit more active and explore the inner talent as well as the skills will help you develop in all the aspects. 2. Being a student that has witnessed offline learning more my observation was that the practical learning or sessions that took place during a tenure helped me a lot of grasping things in my professional career, my suggestion would be to maintain such practical sessions so that it keeps helping individual. 3. The online mode during the pandemic has been adapted very well by the college and especially the BAMMC department. Congratulations for running all the classes and events virtually successfully.
Employer	1. Overall being autonomous as they select a very relevant BOS, which in turn helps them to put the best course online.
