About Malad Kandivli Education Society:

The Malad Kandivli Education Society (MKES), a visionary Society was established before independence with the sole objective of imparting education to the masses, especially to the youth of the linguistic minority community. MKES was a realization of the dream of a few leaders of the then thinly populated suburbs of Malad and Kandivli to create a facility for imparting quality education to the students which was absent at that time.

Currently following are institutions under MKES:

- Sheth N.L. High School - Gujarati and Hindi.
- The Bombay Suburban Grain Dealers' Junior College
- Nagindas Khandwala College
- MKES English School
- MKES College of Law
- MKES Institute of Management Studies and Research.

About Labdhi Vikram Jan Seva Trust (LVJST):

Labdhi Vikram Jan Seva Trust (LVJST) is a non-profit organization working towards the revival, research, and representation of India's cultural and civilizational heritage. Through education, research, social initiatives, and cultural events, LVJST aims to build awareness about India's timeless values and their relevance in today's world. The trust works across multiple verticals, from academic research and youth engagement to exhibitions, heritage preservation, and interfaith dialogue, creating spaces for meaningful conversations around culture, philosophy, and sustainability.

Key Focus Areas:

- Promoting research on Indian philosophy, art, and governance systems
- Supporting educational and cultural development programs
- Organizing national and international conferences and heritage exhibitions
- Encouraging youth participation through seminars, workshops, and creative forums
- Building global collaborations for knowledge and cultural exchange
