Key Challenges

Managing our Staff

Management and training of staff (including paid staff and volunteers) is critical to the success of spectator services operations. The personnel deployed to undertake this function will need to be helpful and sensitive to the needs of the spectators

Deploying the Staff

Deployment of volunteers for or managing spectator services is critical, high volunteer attrition may result in unexpected failure to deliver and shall cause unprecedented spectator dissatisfaction

Training the Staff

Providing staff with specific training to deal with particular client groups including people with a disability, culturally and linguistically diverse, indigenous, aged and children
