ABOUT NAGINDAS KHANDWALA COLLEGE

Education is an essential requisite for any civilized society. In 1942, when India was still under colonial rule, the need of education became all the more crucial. Realizing this need, the visionary Management Members of Malad and Kandivli areas came together and established Malad Kandivli Education Society. Harboursing the dream of providing high standard education, Malad Kandivli Education Society founded Sheth Nahalchand Laloochand High School in 1942-43.

Dedicated to providing outstanding education; the Malad Kandivli Education Society expanded its branches and established many new educational institutions. It has groomed many young minds into responsible citizens over these many years. Thousands of students have gone out of its portals and today occupy important positions in the Society. In its 60 years of existence, the society has achieved many milestones and one such significant milestone of the Society was the establishment of the College in July 1983.

The College was started with three classes of Commerce, which were created by wooden partitions in the dilapidated hall without any government grant. In its first year, 330 students had enrolled in College. In 1988, Arts stream was started and the Degree College was started and it was named as 'Nagindas Khandwala College of Commerce and Arts' and the Junior College was named as 'The Bombay Suburban Grain Dealers' Junior College of Commerce and Arts'. After 5 years of its existence, the College received grant from the government. The College ran in two sessions morning and evening for nearly a decade. In 2001, the evening session was discontinued and the degree College ran full-fledged in morning and the Junior College ran in the afternoon session. With the establishment of the College in the year 1983 with just 300 students, today the College is renowned as one of the best institutions that provide quality education to more than four thousand students.

2. PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

Human values and professional ethics are intertwined. Values are concerned with personal conviction with the core belief or desire that guide or motivate attitudes and actions. Professional ethics is concerned with the concept and framework of moral right or wrong as applied to a professional organisation, execution policies and behaviours. The professional ethics that a Khandwala Students are expected to display are:

2.1 INTEGRITY

Integrity is defined as the unity of thought, word and deed (honesty) and open mindedness. It includes the capacity to communicate the factual information so that others can make well informed decisions. It yields the person's peace of mind, and hence adds strength and consistency in character, decisions, and actions. This paves way to one's success. It enthuses people not only to execute a job well but to achieve excellence in performance. It helps them to own the responsibility and earn self-respect and recognition by doing the job. Integrity is the quality of being honest and having strong moral principles; moral uprightness. It is generally a personal choice to uphold oneself to consistently moral and ethical standards

2.2 CREDIBILITY & RESPONSIBILITY

The obligation of an individual or organization to account for its activities, accept responsibility for the demand to disclose the results in a transparent manner. It also includes the responsibility for money or other entrusted property.

2.3 COMMITMENT

Commitment means alignment to goals and adherence to ethical principles during the activities. It is the driving force to realize success. This is a basic requirement for any profession. This is bound to add wealth to oneself, one's employer, society, and the nation at large.

2.4 ATTITUDE

It is a psychological construct, a mental and emotional entity that characterizes a person. They are complex and are acquired through experiences. Attitude can be formed from a person's past and present. One should develop such attitude which provides synergy and satisfaction in their day-to-day life. Positive Mental Attitude (PMA) characterizes faith, integrity, hope, optimism, courage, initiative, generosity, tolerance, tact, kindness and good common sense.

2.5 VALUING TIME:

Time is rare resource. Once it is spent, it is lost forever. It cannot be either stored or recovered. Hence, time is the most perishable and most valuable resource too. This resource is continuously spent, whether any decision or action is taken or not. Time management is the key to increase effectiveness, efficiency or productivity.

2.6 PASSION

Passion is a feeling of intense enthusiasm towards or compelling desire for completion of the work. Passion defines performance enhancing aspects and work enjoyment. When an individual is passionate about their occupation, they tend to work more enthusiastically and experience work satisfaction.
